

Distribution

Net Lynk's distribution methods are varied and flexible, we have to be as you demand this. We stand out because we have the in depth experience, proven infrastructure and vast capabilities of an established logistics provider but more importantly what we do is uniquely individual. Underpinned by our Best of Breed IT and systems technology and supported by modern production and distribution facilities our services are scalable and adaptable by design.

Picking, packing and dispatch is an integral part of our service to you. We are dedicated to understanding your business needs, your products, and how we can best serve you in their dispatch. All orders, whether they're routine, or urgent, are handled according to your needs and instructions.

With our vast network of delivery partnerships, we can offer a flexible approach to getting your goods delivered anywhere - UK and internationally within the time frame.
